Restoring Catholic Culture

Leading our Families, Homes, Communities, and Churches back to their Catholic Roots.

Fr. John Audino

What is Catholic Culture? Explorations of Domestic Life

Saturday, September 23rd

6:00pm Networking and Social Hour | 7:00pm Guest Speaker
Chesterton Academy of Omaha, 36th and Q Streets

Join us on September 23rd for our first speaker, Father John Audino. Fr. John Audino FSSP grew up near Albany, NY. The oldest of 6 boys, he and his brothers benefited from a Catholic Liberal Arts education from being homeschooled, to graduating from St. Gregory's Academy (Elmhurst, PA). Fr. Audino then earned a Bachelor's Degree in Literature with a minor in Latin from Ave Maria University (Ave Maria, FL) in 2013 and spent one very busy year in a Catholic Classical K-12 school in Florida before entering Our Lady of Guadalupe Seminary (Denton, NE) where he studied Philosophy and Theology. He was ordained a priest forever as a member of the Priestly Fraternity of St. Peter in May, 2021. He is an enthusiastic athlete who enjoys competing in most sports and is currently serving as the assistant priest at Immaculate Conception Church in Omaha, NE where he enjoys, among his other duties, being chaplain for the ICC Youth Group and the ICC Knights of the Altar.
